TARIFF REFORM

Is the Battle Cry in Massachusetts.

Democrats Hold Their State Convention.

Rousing Address by Chairman Avery.

An Aggressive Campaign to be Made.

Every Democrat Should Read the Words of the Boston Statesman and Prepare Now for the Contest to Come.

Boston, April 8.—Hon. Edward Avery, permanent chairman of the democratic state convention addressed the convention to-day as follows:

"We are thankful that the danger of the passage of a free silver coinage act seems for the present to be averted.

"We are equally opposed to the existing law and the proposed law. Unless the vast resources of our country, and the demands of our trade, set at defiance the experience of the past, both are full of danger.

"The business men of the country should not forget that if as many skillful financiers believe, we are fast approaching a silver basis, with all its apprehended mischief, the republican party alone is to be held responsible.

"The national democratic party is for honest money, a currency of gold and silver, every dollar of which shall be of equal intrinsic value all over the world. Until this policy is modified by another convention no man or set of men, in congress or out of congress, can commit the party to any other policy.

"Judging from the past, this subject can be safely left to the sober judgment of the next democratic national convention.

"Four years ago we raised the standard of tariff reform. True to its long-established policy the democratic party proposed to reduce the indirect taxes paid by the people; to readjust the free list, and in a spirit of justice to the consumer and the producer, the workingman and the employer, to insure a sufficient revenue for the needs of the government, and to afford such protection to our own products as to maintain the rate of wages to the workingman and secure a reasonable profit to the manufacturer.

"Tariff reform became our battle cry. Our opponents substantially admitting the correctness of our position, claimed that they should be entrusted with the power to carry out the reform.

"They claimed to be the true conservators of America for Americans. They assured the workingman that under their plan wages would be higher and the necessaries of life cheaper. At the same time they bargained with the manufacturers, in consideration of the contribution of large sums in cash for campaign purposes, to protect them and secure for them larger profits.

"How they kept these conflicting promises the McKinley bill demonstrates. Its effects are felt in every household. Every person who eats, drinks, and is clothed, pays a higher tax by reason of it, which does not go into the treasury of the government, but into the pockets of the capitalists.

"Against this law we take up arms. Again we raise the cry of 'tariff reform.' Again we take up the cause of the many against the few, and we say to those who know they were deceived four years ago, join with us and secure under a democratic administration a just and equal tariff, adapted to the wants and protecting the interest of the whole people.

"The present administration, with its futile efforts to maintain its power through the odious machinery of a 'force bill,' by its dangerous silver legislation, its onerous tariff act, its unprecedented expenditures, its return to the spoils system, its departmental scandals, presents to the most casual observer a painful contrast to the last democratic administration, which for dignity, intelligent economy, conscientious devotion to the interests of the whole country and freedom from any act that should cause a friend to blush or an enemy to condemn, is unsurpassed in the history of the country.

"It demonstrated to the world that the capacity and skill to wisely administer the affairs of the nation so conspicuous in a Jefferson and a Jackson, have been transmitted to their democratic successors.

"When we remember the blow aimed at liberty by the 'force bill,' the injustice embodied in the tariff act, the danger lurking in the silver law, the shameful scandals that even now disgrace our departments, the wanton disregard of the expressed will of the people which marked the expiring days of the last congress, success is a duty, at any sacrifice, save that of honor.

"I repeat, success is a duty; how to secure it will be one of the problems submitted to the convention to which you to-day elect the representative of your state.

"The first great step is the adoption of sound principles and the declaration of a policy to guide the legislator and the executive. The party that contents itself with holding on to old ideas and hugging the glory of the past is doomed to defeat. Bring forward sound and fundamental principles, however old they may be, and wed them to those measures which to-day demands.

"The next duty will be the selection of a candidate. I believe the candidate should be as strong as the platform—indeed, that he should be an embodiment of the platform and not merely that, but one who is so welded to his principles that he would encounter defeat in their open support, rather than insure success by discreet silence.

"I believe that our candidate should be a man of tried honesty, broad and comprehensive patriotism and undoubted courage, cool in action, deliberate in judgment and ready and willing under all circumstances, and at all hazards, to do what he believes to be right.

"To such a man the destinies of a great nation can be safely intrusted, to such a man I doubt not the delegates from Massachusetts will give their united votes and such a man I believe the united democracy will elect as the next president of the United States."

IT WAS A FAILURE.

A County Fair Wedding Proved to be Disastrous

Upper Sandusky, O., April 8.—(Special)—One of the attractions at the county fair here last fall was a public marriage ceremony. The couple were two blushing young people from the country, Miss Hattie Allion and John Hickle. A great throng witnessed the tying of the knot, and Gen. W. H. Gibson assisted in the ceremony. The future never looked brighter to a newly-joined pair, but now it seems the marriage was a complete failure, as to-day Mrs. Hickle began proceedings for a divorce, her plea being neglect. The couple are well known and the suit has created considerable surprise.

Fostoria, April 8.—(Special)—Fostoria encampment I. O. O. F. has leased the third floor of the building soon to be erected by Capt. R. Alcott, and will have it fitted with lodge, drill and banqueting halls.

IS CHARGED TO ANARCHY

They Are Applying the Torch in Vienna.

An Attempt to Destroy Famous Ring Street.

The Hose Cut, Water Supply Tampered With, and Every Obstacle Put in the Way of Firemen.

Vienna, April 8.—Great excitement was caused this morning by another incendiary fire. A mansion on Ring strasse was reported to be in flames and when the police and firemen hastened to the place they found every evidence that the fire was the work of anarchists.

The flames were already under considerable headway, but the firemen succeeded, by extraordinary exertion, in preventing the spread of what had threatened to be a serious conflagration.

In their work they met, as on former occasions, with exations interference by the crowd that gathered at the scene, and which undoubtedly included a number of anarchists.

The latter tried to create a row and pushed people in the way of the firemen, trampled on the hose and cut it in several places.

There is reason to believe that an effort was made to interfere with the water supply. Had the fire spread it would have desolated one of the most aristocratic sections of the city.

Ring strasse is one of the most beautiful streets in the world. It is lined with the mansions of noble and wealthy citizens, against whom the anarchists have of late directed their threats.

In view of recent incendiary attempts the wealthier people are having their houses specially guarded, while the police force has been strengthened on the Ring strasse, the Prater strasse, and the other neighborhoods where the well-to-do reside

RUNNING DOWN RUSTLERS

War on the Horse Thieves in Montana.

The First Evidence of the War of Extermination, Found on the Alkali Creek.

Helena, Mont., April 8.—The first results of the war looking to the extirmination of horse thieves in eastern Montana and Wyoming came to light yesterday, when the body of a man was found on Alkali creek, about ten miles from Billings.

He had been shot through the head and had been dead several days.

The man has not been identified, but is supposed to be a Wyoming "rustler" en route to Canada. Two other men suspected to be in communication with horse thieves have mysteriously disappeared within the past few days.

This is only the beginning of the end.

Two parties are now out after the rustlers, who are located at the Jackson Hole, in Wyoming, with a thousand stolen horses in their possession.

THE SPLIT IN LOUISIANA

Strong Political Combination Made.

Democratic Foolishness May Win the State Over to the Republicans.

New Orleans, April 8.—Rumors have been current for several days and generally believed, that the McEnery people, the lottery and the Leonard wing of the republican party, have formed a combination to elect Leonard, his wing to deliver the republican delegation for Harrison at the Minneapolis convention and the lottery to provide $500,000 for the state campaign and a handsome donation to carry this state in the Harrison campaign.

The rumor is confirmed by the admission of a prudent lottery stockholder that such a combination has been made, the money provided and the messenger despatched. Some of the ward bosses admit McEnery is being run simply to help their city ticket and with no hope of election. The McEnery papers have reinstated their ticket, although they had taken it from their colums.

A HEAVY YOKE IS

Hung Around the Neck of Canada.

Hon. David Mills Astonishes the Natives

By His Bold Talk in the Commons.

Atlantic Fisheries Again Under Dispute.

Queen Victoria's Influence is Growing Weaker Each Year Among the People of the Northern Colonies.

Ottawa, Ont., April 8.—In the house of commons last evening Hon. David Mills said it was time, if the house had any respect for itself, that some action be taken in regard to reciprocity.

He would ask the house to declare that the time had come when a commercial treaty with the United States favorable to Canada should be negotiated by men responsible to the ministers of the crown for their official acts, and for whom the ministers were responsible to the house of commons.

Hon. Geo. Foster, minister of finance, replied denouncing the resolution as being simply veiled disloyalty and accusing every supporter thereof, and especially Hon. Wilfred Laurier, leader of the opposition, with being annexationists.

Wilfred Laurier, in reply, said that George Foster forgot that Canada was growing and that nations grew as men grew. Canada could not remain a colony forever. He did not sugest separation from the mother country at present. The position of the colonial citizen was humiliating. Years ago Canada copied the American tariff and framed her laws on the American principles and they must abide by it. He was not an annexationist. The highest goal of his political aim was to see Canada an independent nation among nations.

Atlantic Fisheries.

The supplementary papers regarding the negotiations respecting the fisheries on the Atlantic coast now in progress between Newfoundland and the United States, transmitted to the house of commons last night confirm the rumor that there were negotiations under progress between the ancient colony and the American government of which the Canadian public knew nothing.

The report shows that American fishermen were permitted by Newfoundland to fish within the three-mile limit from which they are excluded under the convention of 1818.

Lord Stanley's attention is called to the fact that Newfoundland imposes heavy license fees upon Canadian fishing vessels for the privilege of purchasing bait supplies. Against this treatment, which placed her on a footing with foreign nations, Canada remonstrated without success.

Appended to the report is a protest from the Canadian authorities addressed to Lord Knutsford.

They call attention to the fact, which appeared at the recent conference with Mr. Blaine at Washington, that tariff discrimination against Great Britain was the point at which negotiations for more extended trade arrangements between the United States and Canada broke off.

This being in accordance with the instructions of her majesty's government they cannot suppose her majesty's government will approve a convention by which the United States and Newfoundland will discriminate against Canada, as the draft of the Newfoundland convention enables either or both to do. Canada can only obtain similar terms to those of Newfoundland by agreeing to discrimination, while having the same advantages to offer.

THINKS BLAINE WAS HONEST

Senator Hale Does Not Think He is Fooling.

His Letter of Declination Was in Good Faith and He Will Stand By It.

New York, April 8.—A Washington special to the Recorder says:

Senator Hale, in an interview yesterday regarding the stories which have been assiduously circulated the past week with reference to Mr. Blaine's supposed willingness to accept the nomination for the presidency, said:

"I do not speak for Mr. Blaine, because I have no authority to do so, but I know he stands to-day exactly as he did when he wrote his letter of withdrawal.

"He has not reconsidered his determination and he has given no intimation of any intentention to reconsider it."

STRUCK A FREIGHT TRAIN

Bad Wreck on the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus.

Nobody Killed, but a Number of Passengers Seriously Injured—Orders Disobeyed.

Mt. Vernon, O., April 8.—One of the most serious wrecks that has occurred on the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus railroad for several years has happened about twenty-three miles east of here, at a point called the Summit, a very steep grade.

Freight train No. 24, going west, was assisted by a pusher, and the flagman on the Summit had orders to hold No. 3, express, going east, until No. 24 passed. This he failed to do, resulting in a collision in which about a dozen or more passengers were more or less injured. Those most seriously hurt are as follows:

T. B. Reed, engineer of No. 3, right foot sprained by jumping.

Mrs. Jonathan Tipton, of Black Creek, severe injury to left arm and wrist and back wrenched, thought to be hurt internally.

Mrs. W. H. Latt, of Columbus, back sprained.

W. L. Koch, of Millersburg, was found wedged between two seats, his right hand and arm being badly crushed and wrenched.

H. Irwin, of Westerville, contusion of head and left cheek.

S. L. Nearing, of Danville, left leg badly bruised and contusion.

FOUGHT TO DEATH.

Two Men Cut Each Other with Deadly Weapons.

Hot Springs, Ark., April 8.—Yesterday afternoon Ring Mayberry and George Simmons, two powerful men, quarreled on the streets of this city. Simmons was armed with a pair of sheep shears and his antagonist had a large knife.

Both men repeatedly plunged the weapons into each other. Before the men could be separated Mayberry was fatally wounded and Simmons received injuries which may result in death.

JUDGE HAYNES' MOTHER

Dies in Bronson, O., at the Advanced Age of 90 Years.

Norwalk, O., April 8.—(Special)—Mrs. Paris D. Haynes, widow of the late Benjamin G. Haynes, and mother of Judge G. R. Haynes, of Toledo, died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. S. Herrick, in Bronson, aged 90 years.

Mrs. Julia Carter, wife of O. G. Carter, an old resident of this city died this morning aged 77.

Mrs. Carter was an aunt of the late Judge Sage, of Cincinnati.

AWFUL MISTAKE.

Herbert Stuckey Drinks Concentrated Lye for Whisky.

Alliance, O., April 8.—Herbert Stuckey, of Paris, near here, while moving household goods, drank from the wrong jug, taking two swallows of concentrated lye. He is in great agony and can not recover.

THE WORK OF ANARCHISTS

Deacon Poninski Attacked in His Home

And Left for Dead by the Assassins.

They Were Executing Orders from the Executive Committee and Were Traced to the Woods and Shot

Berlin, April 8.—A dispatch from Inowrazlaw, an important town in Prussian Poland, tells of a tragic event in that province, which indicates that the anarchists are thoroughly organized in attacks upon the established order of things. One of the leading residents in the vicinity of Inowrazlaw is Deacon Von Poninski, who lives at Koscielec, and is an influential supporter of the government, and an enemy of radicalism.

During the night four men, dressed in respectable attire, and their features concealed by masks, entered the residence of Poninski. The deacon was in bed. The men were evidently not brigands, as they paid no attention to the valuables in the house, but made straight to Poninski's room.

Poninski was aroused by the noise of their entrance, and sat up, terror-stricken. His wife was also aroused, and was about to cry for help, when one of the masked men told her sternly to be silent if she wished to save her life. There was enough light in the room for Poninski and his wife to notice the general appearance of the intruders, and for the latter to see their intended victim.

Before the deacon could speak the three men levelled their weapons at him and fired. The shots took effect, inflicting dangerous wounds. His wife was not hurt.

Poninski sank back in the bed, the blood starting from his wounds. The assassins, apparently satisfied that they had killed their victim, turned and hurried away.

Frau Poninski, although not herself injured, became unconscious and fainted by the side of the body of her husband. The shots, meantime aroused the nighbors and servants, who hastened to the scene.

As soon as Frau Poninski was restored she told the story of the assassination. The deacon, who had fainted from the shock and loss of blood, was brought back to consciousness and confirmed his wife's report of the outrage.

The authorities and people determined to hunt down the would-be murderers and an expedition was immediately organized, in which all the able-bodied men of Koscielec joined.

The assassins were tracked to a forest and their trail was followed for a long distance.

As the pursuers came closer to the pursued, the former threw out skirmishers right and left, so as to prevent the escape of the outlaws. Then they closed in upon them and a demand was made for their surrender.

The outlaws uttered cries of defiance and the pursers prepared for a charge. As the attacking party rushed forward the outlaws fired, but without effect, while a fusilade from the assailants laid two of the assassins dead.

The remaining two did not wait for capture. Turning their weapons on themselves, they shot themselves fatally and died almost instantly.

When the bodies of the dead were examined a startling discovery was made. Letters of instruction were found signed with the words "executive committee of the Polish anarchists," and the signature was accompanied by a seal inscribed with the same words.

These letters contained instructions to murder Deacon Poninski and also instructions to commit other outrages, regarding which the authorities have not yet given any information, as they probably wish to use the revelations for the detection and capture of other anarchists.

It appears from the letters that the anarchists in Poland are thoroughly organized and have a central committee, whose instructions are implicitly obeyed. The letters also, it is stated, refer indirectly to similar organizations in Austria, and in ohtre European countrie.

The case has aroused the greatest interest among the Berlin authorities and special detectives have already been despatched to Inonrazlaw to get all the facts that are possible and to ascertain whether there is any common understanding between the anarchists of Prussian Poland and those in other parts of Germany.

MATTHEWS IN THE FIELD

He Wants to be Governor of Indiana.

Gov. Gray Will Find Much Opposition in the Coming Democratic Convention.

Fort Wayne, Ind., April 8.—The Evening Sentinel, the leading democratic paper of northern Indiana, will to-day announce, upon the authority of a close political friend of Hon. Claude Matthews, the present secretary of state, that the latter gentleman will positively be a candidate for governor before the coming democratic state convention.

The gentleman says: "So persistently has Mr. Matthews been urged to become a candidate that he has authorized the statement that he would not decline nomination. Mr. Matthews obeyed the call of the party to be its candidate for secretary of state in 1890, and is too good a democrat to decline the nomination for governor, if the party in convention so decides."

NINETY-NINE YEAR BILL

Has Been Passed by the Ohio Senate.

Kirkby Takes Sherman Men for Assistants.

Penitentiary Appointments—Interesting Gossip Gathered in Columbus About State Affairs.

Columbus, April 8.—(Special)—The Ohio senate yesterday afternoon witnessed the passage of a bill the magnitude of which when closely examined, is of great importance to the people of this state. The bill is known as the Spencer ninety-nine year measure.

It authorizes the councils of cities of the state to give to the street railways a 99 year franchise for which they are to pay a certain per cent. of their gross income for the use of said streets.

The author did not think that it was possible to pass such a measure when he introduced it, but having at his back such men as Mark Hanna, Governor McKinley John Kilgour and other street railway magnates, it became an easy task for him to push the measure for passage in the senate. It is a remarkable fact that all kinds of combinations were made to secure its easy progress through the senate.

All who voted in the affirmative were republicans except Messrs. Gaer, Geyer and Shaw. In the negative, all were democrats except Hildebrand and Parker. The bill will have very tough sledding in the house, as Speaker L. C. Laylin will fight it bitterly.

Penitentiary Appointments.

The penitentiary managers made a number of appointments as follows: Deputy warden, George H. Playford, Muskingum; assistant deputy warden, Frank Hatton, Fulton; matron, Mrs. Flora H. Kissinger, Franklin; assistant matron, Miss Jennie Husted, Richland; superintendent of construction, J. H. Nolan, jr., Coshocton; stenographer, Miss Dell McMaster, Meigs; assistant physician, Dr. A. J. Heulein, Belmont.

Both Sherman Men.

Wm. Kirkby, of Toledo, the new railroad commissioner, who goes into office on May 1, was in the city yesterday and made two excellent apointments. Colonel E. H. Archer, of this city, is to be chief clerk, and Mr. Jesse H. Weirick, of Tiffin, is to be the stenographer. Both were members of Chairman Hahn's staff during the McKinley campaign.

Notes.

The house agreed to the senate amendments to the McConnell bill prohibiting barbering on Sunday.

The senate yesterday afternoon passed a bill prohibiting the entering of a horse under false pretenses in a trial of speed.

The house has concurred in the senate amendments to the bill of Mr. Taylor, of Champaign, dividing the state into two districts.

The senate yesterday afternoon passed Llewellyn's bill to protect employers and guarantees their right to belong to labor organizations.

Senator McConica introduced a bill in the senate yesterday afternoon authorizing Findlay to invest the surplus gas revenue in bonds.

The Daugherty bill ripping up Columbus, providing for the federal plan for this city, was both postponed until Tuesday next, when it is expected that it will be passed.

The house yesterday afternoon after considerable discussion defeated the James bill repealing that part of the Garber fee and salary law applying to county recorders.

The house took up the senate resolution to adjourn on Monday next at 12 o'clock and amended the same by striking out the figures 11 and inserting 18, which will be one week from next Monday.

The old soldiers at the National home at Dayton, will have to go over a mile to get a drink now, as the senate passed Affaman's house bill prohibiting the sale of liquor within one mile of that institution.

The house, after a heated discussion, yesterday afternoon defeated Block's bill providing that foreign surety companies might become bondsmen for officials and other persons in this state. Its author will try to have it reconsidered and passed.

LURED HER TO DISGRACE

Sad Termination of a Georgia Elopement.

Girl Abducted by a Band of Thieves.

She Is Released for a Money Consideration and the Young Scoundrel Placed in Jail.

Fort Gaines, Ga., April 8.—Archie Bigbie, who a few weeks ago, abducted Miss Laura Brooks from her home in Clay county, under promise of marriage, and carried her into the swamps of the Chattahoochie river, where she was brutally treated, was arrested here yesterday as he stepped off a steamboat.

He and the young lady planned an elopement, and the trusting girl found very soon that she was in the clutches of a villainous scoundrel who had deliberately planned her ruin.

Bigbie, it turned out, lived with three companions in an old tenement on the banks of the Chattahoochie, the quartet purloining the stray cattle and swine of farmers for subsistence.

Farmer Brooks, the father of the girl, learned of his daughter's whereabouts and sent a party to bring her back to her home. After treating with her captors, Allen White, a member of the party, secured the release of the girl for a money consideration and she was returned to her parents and told the story of her abduction and the hardships she had undergone.

Bigbie is now in jail and fears of lynching are entertained.

OHIO'S WHEAT CROP.

The First Report Shows It to be All Right.

Columbus April 8.—The first state crop bulletin of the season was issued yesterday. The average condition of growing wheat in Ohio is 69 per cent. of a full average. Twenty-three per cent. of the crop of 1891 is estimated to be still in the hands of the farmers.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Findlay, O., April 8.—Katie Rooney, who was severely injured in the natural gas explosion at the Marvin hotel in February, 1891, has filed a suit against Ansil Marvin, the owner of the building, asking $10,250 damages. At the recent term of common pleas court Ella Johnson, another of the injured dining-room girls, secured a verdict of $5,000 in a similar suit.

SENATOR BURNS

Of the Twelfth Ohio Senatorial District Makes a Strong Statement.

A Case That Dates From the Late War and Illustrates the Success In Cases of Long Standing.

The following statement from Senator Thomas A. Burns, who represents the Twelfth senatorial district in the present Ohio legislature, will be read with much interest by the senator's many friends in this city and vicinity. The statement is in his own words and over his signature:

"While in the federal service in the winters of 1861-62, I contracted a heavy cold, which brought on pneumonia and resulted in disease of the lungs and throat. From that time until my term of service ended, November, 1865, I was more or less affected. Just after my return from the army I had profuse hemorrhage of the lungs, which has occurred at intervals several times. About 1874 I was attacked with catarrh of the throat and lungs, and gastric catarrh of the stomach, which prostrated me for thirty days, so that I was not expected to recover. In the fall of 1881 I had another attack of catarrh of the head and throat which produced gathering in the head; entire deafness of the left ear; soreness of the throat and trachea, extending to the lungs, with profuse discharge from the nose and throat. In this condition three eminent physicians despaired of my recovery, and told me that I would have to procure other medical assistance, as they could do no more for me. I applied to a prominent physician of Cincinnati, specialist for throat and lung diseases, who gave me treatment, and I think did me much good, and I believe would have effected a cure had his diagnosis discovered the true cause of my disease. I have been treated for twenty years past by three very eminent physicians at my home, and to whose medical skill I give the honor affording me temporary relief.

"The first of January, 1892, seeing Dr. Copeland and associates' notice of treatment for catarrh and lung diseases, I called on them at their offices. Their diagnosis was so thorough that I was convinced that they had discovered the true cause of my debility. At my second visit the doctors removed from the nasal passage of the left side a polypi tumor larger than a quail's egg, and from the right side a tumor about half the size of the other. The operation was performed without pain or other inconvenience, and did not necessitate an hour's loss from business.

"I have been under the doctors' treatment for two months. Since the removal of the tumors or polypi I have experienced no trouble at all with catarrh of the head. My throat has not been sore since the operation. My general health is much better than it was before the treatment, and I feel greatly encouraged and that I shall not experience any further trouble with nasal catarrh.

"I want to say this is not a paid statement, but given for the benefit of any who may be likewise suffering.

"Dr. Copeland's charges to me were $5 per month and no more."

THOMAS A. BURNS.

Mr. Rice's Case.

It is rarely that the specialist, whose observation covers a wide range of throat and lung troubles and whose experience brings him in contact with many of the serious and desperate cases resulting from neglected catarrh, sees a more pronounced case and one more typical of what head and throat trouble, if neglected or not properly treated, may develop into, than the case of Mr. Ancil G. Rice, of 219 Dix street. As near as possible we give his own words:

"My trouble has all been due to chronic catarrh," says Mr. Rice, "and it was not neglected, either, for I have doctored for years, but been improperly treated. I had occasional violent headaches. My eyes were weak and watery and my nose was continually stopped up. I was forced to breathe through my mouth.

"My throat was always filling up with the dropping of the mucus from the head. I was hawking and spitting all the time. My throat was at times very sore and raw. My rest was poor at night and I was really unfit for business in the morning.

"As I said, I tried many prominent physicians, but experienced very little relief. I had heard and read of the success of Dr. Copeland and associates, and concluded to give them a trial. I did so with the result that my pains, aches and other troubles are all gone. The change in my condition is such that I unhesitatingly recommend Dr. Copeland and associates to all who suffer as I did."

Nasal Polypi Described by a Patient.

"I had been troubled for a number of years," said Mr. George Hoffman, of 107 Empire street. "My head and nose was completely stopped up and I had to breathe through my mouth. This was due, in a measure, to the accumulation of mucus, but more especially to a number of polypi tumors which filled both nostrils. I had treated with a number of physicians but none of them discovered the tumors. Some time ago I called on Dr. Copeland and associates, and placed myself under their treatment. They immediately removed seven polypi tumors and I was able to breathe through my nostrils, something I had not done in years. They then treated my catarrh, and I am happy to say I am feeling better to-day than I have for years. The removal of the tumors was without the slightest pain or loss of blood. I cannot recommend Dr. Copeland and associates too highly."

Portage, O., Feb. 9, 1892.
Copeland Medical Institute, Toledo, O.:

Gentlemen:—Since taking your treatment for catarrh, I am very much better. My general health is much improved, my sense of smell has returned. My case was a chronic one and will require time. I am greatly encouraged and anticipate a complete cure. Refer anyone to me.

Yours respectfully,
N. C. BESANSON.

A Prominent Real Estate Agent Tells of the Removal of Twenty Polypi Tumors.

Among the many prominent real estate agents in Toledo, none are more popular or more favorably known than Mr. J. J. Sumner, whose offices are at the corner of Superior and Madison streets, and who lives at 721 Prouty avenue. Mr. Sumner tells of his experience with Dr. Copeland and associates as follows:

"I had catarrh for a long time. My nose stopped up so that I could breathe only with great difficulty. In damp weather I could not breathe at all. I suffered from terrible, racking headaches. I often thought my head would burst with the throbbing and the pain. There was a constant flow of mucus from my nose, and my eyes became sore and watery. I did not sleep well, and I found that I was losing my sense of smell. I was most distressed, however, about my voice, which changed in tone until it sounded as if I pinched my nose with my fingers while talking.

"I was quite in despair, when after reading the testimonials of the patients of Dr. Copeland and associates I determined to make a trial of their treatment. I accordingly went to the Copeland Medical Institute, and it was only a short time until I began to breathe through my nose, until the headaches disappeared and until the polypus growths were removed. I can now hear the natural voice that has returned to me, much to my comfort and delight. I sleep well and I feel well. I have only one fear, and that is that the polypi may return, so I have concluded to continue the treatment for another month, at the end of which time I shall be forever rid, I hope, of the complaint that for four years made life a burden to me. I am glad to add my small tribute of praise to the splendid work of these physicians."

PROGRESS IS THE SOUTH

Carrol D. Wright Lectures in Nashville.

The United States Labor Commissioner Talks to a Large Number of People on an Interesting Subject.

Nashville, April 8.—Hon. C. D. Wright, United States commissioner of labor, last night delivered an address at Watkins' institute on the progress of the southern states from 1880 to 1890, in the course of which he said:

The southern states in 1870 produced but 184,540 tons of pig iron; in 1880 397,370, in 1890 1,780,909 net tons of pig iron were produced. In steel the south has not yet made much progress. In 1880 the number of net tons was 4,350 and in 1890, 184,625. This is a most encouraging outlook and bespeaks for the south a steel industry in the future of which she will be proud.

The average cost of pig iron in the northern part of the United States is for run of furnace about $14 per ton of 2,440 pounds, while in the south the average cost of run of furnace pig iron is $10.75. This difference of $3.25 in favor of the southern product will be increased to a large amount as labor in the south improves its standard of living and the development of coal and iron mining and transportation increases the facilities for assembling the materials.

Tennessee has produced 47,873 tons of pig iron for the year ending May 31, 1880, while for the year ending June, 1890, she produced 290,747 tons. Her per centage of the total production in the United States in 1880 was 1.27, while in 1890, the percentage has been increased 3.04.

The largest cotton crop in the southern states prior to the war was in 1860, when 4,669,770 bales were produced. In 1871, it was 4,352,317 bales. In 1891 the production reached 8,652,597 bales, and 605,661 bales of the production were consumed in southern mills, as against less than half that quantity 10 years before. In 1890 the cotton seed oil mills crushed 1,058,200 tons. The product being worth $27,303,836, an increase in round numbers in 10 years of $24,000,000.

The number of cotton mills increased from 161 in 1880 to 334 in 1890; the number of spindles from about 500,000 to nearly 2,000,000, and the product from $16,356,182 to $54,199,379. In 1880 there were 567 establishments for the manufacture of wool in the southern states, while in 1890 there were but 334. But the decrease in number in no way indicates a decrease in other features, for the capital invested in the woolen manufactures of the southern states were $4,104,077 in 1880 and $10,283,003 in 1890.

In 1880 the production of distilled spirits amounted to 21,413,237 gallons and in 1890, 44,276,093 gallons, while of fermented liquors the southern states produced in 1880, 1,340,037 bbls and in 1890 the production was 3,482,869 bbls.

Between 1880 and 1890 the mileage of southern railroads with the exception of Arkansas, Louisiana, Maryland, Missouri and Texas was increased from 13,228 miles to 24,956 miles, and the number of passengers carried from 6,395,000 to 30,061,000. The number of passengers carried was increased nearly five-fold, and the amount of freight moved grew from 17,759,441 tons to 61,771,929 tons. The total earnings and income of southern railroads were increased from nearly $47,000,000 to more than $103,000,000 in 1890.

The capital invested in the great industries of the south is represented by the banking capital which, in 1880, was $92,500,000, and in 1890 more than $171,000,000, an increase of over 86 per cent. The capital invested in manufactures and establishments of all kinds was advanced from $179,333,000 in 1880, to $551,500,000 in 1890, while the total number of hands employed was more than doubled, being 153 per cent. greater in 1890 than in 1880.

The total indebtedness of the southern states, including county debts and less the sinking fund, that is practically, the net total debt, was, in 1880, $215,712,241, while in 1890 the indebtedness had been reduced to $178,161,755. The reduction is best expressed by the figures representing per capita indebtedness. In 1880 the total net indebtedness of the southern states was $11.20 for every inhabitant; in 1890 it had been reduced so that each person was represented by the indebtedness of $8.08.

The state of Tennessee has reduced its total debt from $32,000,000 in 1880, to less than $20,000,000 in 1890, or as expressed in per capita indebtedness from $20.81 in the first year named to $11.13 in the last.

In 1878 the southern states expended $8,887,570 for school purposes, including buildings, school expenses, salaries, etc., but not payments of bonded indebtedness. In 1888, 10 years later, such total expenditures reached $16,806,668. Tennessee alone increased her expenditures during the 10 years from $794,232 to $1,023,893. The percentage of enrollment of the whole population in 1880 was 16.59 and in 1890 it had risen to 20.27; while in the whole United States the percentage of enrollment of the total population was 20.22.

THE COMING COUNTRY.

The great Flathead Valley, in Montana, is attracting capital and labor. A FARMER FEUD.

Kenton, O., April 8.—Quite a feud has been going on between two prominent farmers south of this city.

It seems that some time since John Hannas sold John Pickering a valuable horse, and in paying for it he did not abide by their agreement to suit Hannas. Shortly afterwards the horse died suddenly, and Hannas and Frank Shryock, the hostler, were arraigned, charged with poisoning the animal, but from lack of proof were discharged. Yesterday the trouble broke out anew by a Whitecap's notice being served on Hannas and Shryock to leave the state immediately. But they say they will stay and fight, and it will certainly be warm for Whitecap callers if they undertake to carry out their threats.

WILL TURN THE TABLES.

Massillon, O., April 8.—The testimony of three officers of a bank at Tiffin that Hiram Williams was seen by them in their institution on the day that Hiram Schriver was buncoed out of $5,500 in this city, was deemed of far greater weight than the positive identification of Williams by Schriver and his wife, and the mayor discharged him. Williams will bring action against Schriver for false imprisonment, and it is probable the amount claimed will be $20,000.

THE EXTRADITION TREATY

But One Point of Difference to be Settled.

Phelps Has Worked Hard to Frame a Law so That Criminals Can be Brought Home.

Berlin, April 8.—Minister Phelps is making good progress with the new extradition treaty.

The treaties now existing, made many years ago with the different governments of the then existing "German Bund," contains many imperfections which have led in several instances to failures of justice.

Mr. Phelps in conjunction with the Washington government has been planning for a new treaty ever since his appointment as minister, but the more urgent work on the pork ordinances delayed attention to this matter.

Last year, however, a case occurred that showed so glaringly the imperfections of the present treaties that Minister Phelps decided to go to work at once.

A man named Hoit, who had embezzled the funds of a New York electric light company, fled to Europe. He escaped the English police, who tried to arrest him on board of a Hamburg steamer, and came to Germany, where he was arrested at the request of the American legation.

Strong efforts were made by the legation to secure his extradition, but owing to the fact that the treaty recognized only the embezzlement of money from the United States government, and not from private people, the fellow had finally to be released.

He then had the impudence to apply to the legation for a passport, as he could not secure one at Washington, owing to his "sudden departure" from America. Needless to say that his modest request was not granted.

This case, added to Mr. Phelps' eagerness to make a new treaty, and the pork question being out of the way, he gave his entire attention to this matter. The new treaty is almost finished. It will contain many important additions to the present category of extraditable crimes, such as embezzlement, the stealing of money by false pretense, perjury, rape, and crimes committed on the high sea, like mutiny, etc.

The one point of difference between Minister Phelps and Baron von Marschall, the German secretary of foreign affairs, is on the question of the provision to be made for the payment of expenses. The American idea is that each country should pay its own expenses. This is unsatisfactory to Germany. The foreign office says it has rarely recovered a criminal from America without paying at least $300, and there have been cases where thousands have been paid in counsel fees. In Germany, on the other hand, the duty of securing the capture and retention of a fugitive from justice "wanted" by America, devolves upon the prosecuting officers, and no charge is made for their services. Hence the Germans think the present arrangement very one-sided. As American law does not place these duties upon the prosecuting attorneys, Germany must employ counsel and pay fees. The German officials think, therefore, that this treaty should make some mutually satisfactory provisions for expenses.

THE OUTING CLUB

Last evening the annual meeting of the Outing club was held at the office of George H. Ketcham. President Fred J. Reynolds occupied the chair. Treasurer Alvin Rogers' report showed the receipts for the year to have been $2,761.71; disbursements, $2,281.15; balance, $70.56. Consequently the club is in good condition.

Eight directors were elected, as follows: G. H. Beckwith, J. Secor, E. H. Witker, Rathbun Fuller, Hubbard Woodbury, George S. Mills, F. M. Ohl and Henry Suydam.

The grounds will be improved and put in shape for the summer. Members will subscribe for this purpose.

THE REPUBLICANS

Of the Toledo Congressional District Will Meet on the 25th.

A meeting of the republican district committee was held yesterday at the office of Mr. W. H. Tucker to fix time and place of the convention for choosing delegates to the national convention at Minneapolis. The convention will be held in Toledo on April 25, representation being fixed at one delegate for every 250 votes cast for Major McKinley, which will give the following number to each county: Lucas, 39; Wood, 21; Fulton, 11; Ottawa, 6. Two delegates, two alternates, a presidential elector, and a member of the district congressional committee comprises the work before the convention.

CENTRAL LABOR UNION.

New Constitution Adopted—New Delegates Received—Other Business.

At the regular meeting of the Central Labor union last evening new delegates were received from the Metal Polishers, Machine Hands and Boilermakers' unions. The amended constitution, as reported from a committee, was after some discussion and changes adopted.

Delegates from the Painters' union reported on the strike in that trade, and that the union expected to handle it alone. As other unions will of course assist if necessary, no appeal for special aid was asked. Delegates from the Tailors' union reported that they are having no trouble in effecting a thorough organization of that trade.

MR. FOURNIER PAYS THE COSTS,

And the Little Difficulty of Election Night is Amicably Settled.

The case of Joseph Fournier came up in police court this morning. There were two charges of assault and battery against him, the complainants being E. V. E. Rausch and Dr. Chas. E. Sipe. Judge Ritchie appeared for the defendant and stated to the court that inasmuch as no one was injured in the affair and that a trial would only result in bringing up matters that it would not be wise to agitate, the attorneys of both sides had suggested that the case be declared off. This the court did, the costs to be paid by Mr. Fournier. There were a large number of witnesses summoned and the costs amounted to about $30. The charges of disturbance against Mr. Fournier and Mr. Rausch were also withdrawn.

A JOKE ON THE BOARD.

How Senator McConica Unwittingly Jabbed the Gas Trustees.

There were those among the Toledo delegation in Columbus this week who thought Senator McConica was unduly severe on some of the ex-gas trustees of Toledo. While making his speech to the senate he was asked what assurance he had that another big deficit would not be created by the board, to which he replied that the board had undergone a great change and he felt sure the present trustees would be all right. There were some Toledoans present who thought that frank remark materially assisted in passing the new bond bill. Ex-Trustee Tracy remarked as the senator fired the shot, "Thank the Lord I wasn't on the board when those contracts were made." Guess that's true. However, "all's well that ends well," and we all hope there will be a good ending for the Toledo gas business.

WEATHER OBSERVER HANNER

Has a Word to Say on the High Water of the Old Mississippi.

Danger of a Mississippi flood is apprehended by the weather bureau, and the rise and fall of the big stream is reported every 24 hours.

Observer Hanner has been stationed at different points along this river for a number of years, and has made its freaks a special study.

Speaking on the subject to a Bee this morning, Mr. Hanner said: "The river, from St. Louis to the gulf is held in by levees, and a break means a disaster. The danger line at New Orleans is 13 feet, and the water stands at 10 feet the year around. I don't think there is any danger of a big flood at present, as the water is running out about as fast as it runs in. But, mark my word, if there is a disturbance kicked up on the gulf, look out for trouble. Storms on the gulf always back the water up the Mississippi, and just at the present time a disastrous flood would be the result."

THOMAS TIERNAN

Was Tried This Morning for Contempt of Court.

Thomas Tiernan was tried in the police court this morning for contempt of court. It is alleged that a few days ago he stated to an attorney in a case that was to come up that he would render a favorable verdict if he was put on the jury. When the jurymen were being drawn he was present and stated that he thought he could give an unbiased verdict. The court accused him of making a promise to the attorney for the defendant. This morning he was discharged with a reprimand by Judge Sala and told never to make an attempt to get on a jury in the police court again.

A LITTLE TROUBLE

At the Toledo Transfer Company Barns—Fourteen Men Quit Work.

Last evening 14 of the men employed by the Toledo Transfer company quit work, because the room in which they had been accustomed to wait was locked against them. The men are not organized, and the strike, if it can be so called, was precipitated by one of the men saying he would quit if the room was not opened, and others following suit.

"We have no place to dry our clothes when we come in out of the rain," was the way they stated the grievance.

Capt. Dowling was seen by a Bee this morning, and said: "The door was not locked until yesterday, and as it did not rain yesterday none of the men had wet clothes to dry. I did not want them not to use the room. I wanted them to use it properly, and not spit on the floor, etc. They were warned, but paid no attention, so I locked the room up.

"Of course they had a right to quit work if they wanted to, but having left for such a reason, I don't want them back. In fact, their places are filled. I have a full force of men to-day."

COME UP SMILING.

The Striking Painters Feel Sure Victory Is in the Air.

This morning when a Bee knocked for news at the closed door at Clarke's hall, Chairman Preston of the painters' strike committee, came out with such a smiling face that it seemed sure the news would be the strike was over. On the contrary, all that was told was that the situation is the same as yesterday. "We are awaiting the action of the bosses," said Chairman Preston. "We have 35 to 50 more men in the union than when we struck, every man firm for the new scale, and there are indications that they will get it before the week is out." What these indications are is not stated, but the men are all smiling very confidentdly to-day. The Master Painters association meets to-night. This may or may not mean that they will take action on the strike. It is the regular meeting night of the association.

It is, however, on the cards that the strikers are going to have something not so much to their advantage as they anticipate. There is a rumor on the street that the master painters at their meetingfi to-night will bind themselves, 35 of them, under penalty of a heavy forfeit, not to give the advance asked for. One employer, whose name has been given as having signed the scale, has written a letter denying postively that he has done anything of the kind.

Here are the two aspects of the painters' strike to-day. Which is the true one will, perhaps, be better known to-morrow.

THE WORKHOUSE.

Monthly Meeting of the Directors—The Business Transacted.

The workhouse board met yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Laughlin, a widow lady, made application for the parole of her son, Matthew, who has been doing time since May 8, 1891, serving a sentence of six months and $155 for assaulting his mother. She stated that the confinement was injurious to her son's health, which was affirmed by Dr. Hipp. Laughlin was released.

On application of Geoge J. Vollmayer, Christopher Priebe was released on parole, under the provision that he pay $15, at $3 per week. Priebe has served his time, three months, and there was yet $62 fees and costs to work out.

Charles Murphy was recently committed in default of the payment of the costs on a conviction of assault and battery, and a request was made for his release, which was referred to the committee on pardons.

During the month the following prisoners were paroled: George Mayer, recommended by the mayor of Van Wert; Andrew Tuite, Stephen Thorn, Charles York and John Simmonds by order of the board; Michael O'Neil, recommendation of G. P. Kirby and C. L. France.

The arrest of paroled prisoners who had not paid the amounts charged against them was ordered.

The receipts of the institution for the month amounted to $1,335.35.

The superintendent reported a falling off in the revenue, derived from foreign prisoners, for the reason that certain towns had transferred the business to Dayton, as that institution pays the prisoner's fare home again. It was suggested that Toledo make the same terms, which was adopted by motion.

A SLUGGISH STREAM.

It Gets Foul and Poisonous Unless It Is Kept Constantly Flowing.

At this season of the year people feel more or less weak, run down, wearied and depressed. It has been commonly supposed that it is due to impurities of the blood, and that only by purifying the blood can good health be secured. Is this true? Let us see. The blood gets impure because it is sluggish. How does a stream get impure, with green scum and poisons on the top? Simply because it doesn't run. A running stream is not impure, but a stagnant or sluggish stream always is. If, therefore, you would keep your blood pure, keep it moving, keep it throbbing. The moment it begins to be sluggish, it will begin to be impure, and you will feel the effects in tired, weak feelings, depressed emotions, and a thousand and one troubles which always follows. The proper way to keep the blood stirring is by the use of a pure stimulant, in moderation. Stimulate it gently, and it will keep in constant, healthy motion, and good health will follow. There is but one way in which this can be done, and that is by the use of the purest and best stimulant you can find, preferably whiskey, and there is but one absolutely pure, medicinal whiskey known to the world, and that is Duffy's Pure Malt. Scientists admit this, the doctors all confirm it. It is more generally used to-day than any other whiskey which the world has ever seen, and it is popular only through its merit. Do not let any druggist or grocer deceive you by saying they have something "just as good," "something they can recommend," etc. When any dealer says this, he has an interested motive, which usually is, to sell you something cheap and inferior, on which he can make more money. Do not be so deceived.

THE COLUMBIAN CLUB.

The City of Toledo Counts in One More.

It Is Composed of Catholic Gentlemen—Judge Harmon Elected President—The Purposes of the Club.

For some time preliminary work has been done in Toledo toward the organization of a club, the membership of which should be confined to Catholic gentlemen, and a committee on constitution and by-laws for such a club was appointed some time ago, at an informal meeting.

Last evening those interested in the movement gathered at Friendship hall, and the club was formally instituted. The meeting was called to order by Mr. John J. Murphy and on his motion Mr. Charles J. Kirschner was made temporary chairman. The office of temporary secretary was filled by Mr. John J. Berney.

A lively discussion was held over the choice of a name for the club. "Carroll" was proposed in honor of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, signer of the Declaration of Independence; "John Henry Newman," in honor of the late cardinal; "Bronson," in honor of a distinguished American clergyman; and "Columbian." The last named was finally settled upon, as being distinctively American, and so connecting the organization of the club with this era of Columbian celebration which we are just entering upon. "The Columbian Club, of Toledo," is the full title.

The constitution was adopted, section by section. Initiation fee is placed at $10, and dues will be $1 a month. The purpose of the club will be the moral, mental, social and physical advancement of its members. It is proposed to put up a club house, as soon as the finances will warrant it, which shall contain reading and study rooms, gymnasium, and all that goes to make comfortable a first-class gentleman's club house. The constitution provides for a board of seven directors, to whom will be assigned the work of putting up the building.

After the constitution and by-laws had been adopted, Judge Gilbert Harmon was elected president of the club by acclamation, and further elections were postponed until the next meeting, which will be on call of the temporary secretary.

The club starts in under most favorable auspices, having already on its roll of members more than one hundred names of substantial citizens.

Down in Louisiana is a rice trust, which controls the output from the rice mills. Since its organization the price paid for rough rice has been forced down, and the price at which clean rice is sold advanced. Rice planters and dealers met in New Orleans on Tuesday to effect an organization to down the trust, and they will endeavor to get legislation at the coming session which will send the rice trust out of existence.

A "grand banquet" was given Wednesday evening at Libau to the relief commissioners who carried American grain to the starving Russians. This may be an expression of high regard in which Russian officials hold their American visitors, but it can also be interpreted as an expression of the supreme indifference which these same officials feel for the suffering of their own peasantry. This is not a fitting time for grand banquets in Russia in honor of anybody.

The pure food bill which they are working at in the New York assembly, provides that every can, bottle, cask, or what not, containing food or medicine, shall be labeled plainly with all its contained ingredients. Neglect to comply with the law is punishable by $1,000 fine and one year's imprisonment. It is a pretty hard matter to legislate people into honesty. A manufacturer who will mix cod liver oil with hog's lard for the market, will label it to deceive, law or no law, and rely upon the pull he has, politically or otherwsie, to keep suspicious ones from saying anything.

Mistress Kate Field is a staunch republican, but she is working like a Trojan for the removal of the duty from works of art. Mrs. Benjamin Harrison is president of the association in Washington, pledged to this reform. Levi and Mrs. Morton are vice presidents, Miss Field is secretary. Do these good protectionists want this country deluged with cheap, foreign goods? The wife of the president should be more politic in such days as these. Does she want to paint ching cups, unprotected from those French, Italians and Bohemians who live on a few sous' worth of black bread and cheap wine, a day? What about the home market for home paintings? Every argument in favor of prohibitive protection by means of taxation applies as surely to art as it does to hundreds of other things of greater importance. And every argument for free trade in art applies as forcibly to the necessities as to the refinements and luxuries of life. The wealthy go abroad to buy their silks, daces and wools the same as to buy their pictures, and the stay-at-homes pay the tax to keep those cheap and fine goods out of the reach of themselves and their neighbors. By all means remove the tax from pictures, painted china, et cetera, but don't stop there.

"RIPPERS IN THE SADDLE."

Its gun was loaded in the middle and kicked both ways.

When crying like a booby because the democrats propose enjoying the fruits of a well-earned local victory, it was ignorant of the republican combination to rip Toledo in the legislature. Great scheme. "Rippers in the saddle." Herman Baumbach and his running mate, Representative Griffin. A brace game. A stand and deliver job. Republican fairness. "Rippers in the saddle." Let 'er rip.

THE LOCAL OFFICES.

If the impossible were true, to-wit, that there are no other persons among the one hundred thousand inhabitants of Toledo, so competent as the few men who by the grace of previous republican councils now fill subordinate offices, then there would be some reason for the preachment about retaining the present incumbents. But no such reason exists. In all the political history of Toledo the republicans never failed to take everything in sight. The party is built that way. It is practical politics, and frequently, practical politics is good politics—always so if it be honest politics. There is every reason for making a change in Toledo at this time and not a single reason against.

It is not ripping, but changing.

Those who think otherwise would do well right now to observe the present movements of that little prince of ward politics, Herman Baumbach and that king of schemers, Representative Griffin. They have already got a ripping bill in the legislature to take the appointive power from the democratic council of Toledo. What democrat will hesitate now? We do not believe one.

CHICAGO'S TYPICAL WOMAN.

Chicago is just humming with desires and plans, to get everything possessed by every other city and country in the universe, irrespective of age and condition, and wants it all right away quick. The Inter-Ocean offered three prizes for the first, second and third best drawings from which could be engraved a typical figure to stand for "Chicago" on all occasions, as the Yankee with short breeches and slit coat tail does for Uncle Sam. The prizes have been awarded and the I.-O. publishes the sketch of number one, with description. It is the picture of a broad woman standing with her feet a yard apart (the feet are not mates; one is two-thirds size, for Chicago, and the other might answer for Paris or Toledo). Her skirt is tipped up as if it had caught on her garter; she stands with right hand on her hip (as if waiting for the week's wash to be brought in) and the other holds, resting against her body, what is said to be a carpenter's square, but might be taken in the print for a coarse comb. On the cutrass is inscribed "I will," which is probably correct. The hair of her head appears to be made into a nest from which a sitting hen is flying out in terror. The description spoils the illusion by declaring it to be a Phoenix rising from the flames. It is not a happy effect to have the Amazon's hair on fire, even to bring in a Phoenix. The Bee hopes the dismal thing will not be exploited outside the columns of the Inter-Ocean.

James Whitcomb Riley has been accorded a reception at the White House. A Hoosier paper has found the reason why in the following stanza which he composed for Harrison's organ in Indianapolis during the last campaign:

We're goin' to get the man the place
And put him there kersock,
When the frost is on the pumpkin
And the bloom is off the shock.

The president wants to secure him for another like service. Let Riley listen to us before he tunes his harp again—that "frost" and "bloom" racket is worked to death; try another string.

The Chicago Tribune wants visitors' galleries added to public school buildings. The argument is that parents do not visit the school-rooms often enough, and should be encouraged in coming, while visitors disturb scholars and teachers both when they enter the school-room proper. Therefore the Tribune would have a visitors' gallery in each school-room. The Tribune is as practical as ever, forgetting that thousands of children are crowded out of the schools, and suggesting the diversion of school funds to such use as this.

A St. Louis paper says "the old world cities are a quarter of a century behind St. Louis" in the matter of rapid transit. Then they must be four-quarters of a century behind Chicago and Toledo.

Congressman Bryan, of Nebraska, says his ticket is Boies and Flower. A sort of euphonious sound it has.

Supplants the Kansas City Investment Company.

Manager Van Evera Resigns to Accept a More Lucrative Position in Iowa.

The Toledo Land Improvement company supplants the Kansas City Investment company, and will hereafter manage the company's business in this city under a new agency.

Mr. Geo. M. Van Evera, manager of the Kansas City company, has resigned to accept the financial agency of the Union Central Life Insurance company in Iowa.

The Toledo Land Improvement company is in reality the eastern parties for whom the Kansas City Investment company has been operating here and elsewhere.

Mr. Van Evera, during his residence in Toledo has made many warm personal friends, who will learn with sincere regret his contemplated departure.

GAVE THEM A SCARE.

The Richelieu Hotel at St. Louis in Flames.

St. Louis, Mo., April 8.—Night Watchman O'Brien discovered flames issuing from the roof of the Richelieu hotel. He turned in an alarm and, assisted by Night Clerk Sage, aroused the sleeping inmates. The hotel had 90 guests, over 30 of whom were women and children. There was considerable of a panic at first, but under the direction of the employes of the hotel and with the assistance of the firemen all occupants of the building were safely conducted to the lower floor. The flames were confined to the upper floors of the hostelry and the damage will not exceed $4,000.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but is believed to have been caused by crossed electric light wires.

FOSTER PROMOTED.

The Valparaiso Judge Rewarded for His Work.

Valparaiso, April 8.—Judge of Crimes Foster, who conducted the investigation of the assault upon members of the crew of the United States steamer Baltimore, was promoted to the court of appeals at a meeting yesterday of the council of state.

Five court of appeal judges in all have been appointed—two from the conservative party and three from the liberal ranks. This proves the desire of the present cabinet to act fairly in the distribution of offices.

It is reported that Admiral Walker's squadron has sailed from Ensenada, Argentina. Its destination is not known.

CURRENT COMMENT.

President Harrison is now looking about for another opportunity to write a "sassy" foreign letter.—Helena (Mont.) Independent.

We have not seen any outburst of local pride in the Chicago papers over the fact that the dynamite bombs used in Paris are manufactured in Chicago.—Indianapolis Journal.

The anti-Hill democrats in New York appear to have solid ground for the prediction that their delegation will be recognized by the national democratic convention.—Memphis Commercial.

The burning of Mandalay has been followed in short order by the almost total destruction of Port Siubyugyum. The anarchists are evidently getting in their fine work in Burmah.—Brooklyn Times.

Walt Whitman once wrote a poem on Duluth, and a good one, too. If there were no other evidences of his genius that alone would be sufficient, for verily Duluth is not ordinarily provocative of raptures, rythmic or otherwise.—Minneapolis Tribune.

The inquiry into the sweating system seems to be demonstrating that success in the wholesale clothing trade is destructive to the powers of observation. The number of notorious things that the employers failed to notice baffles computation.—Chicago Times.

The managers of the "80,000 miles of railway" excluded from the world's fair grounds are lacking in resources. If they will put their case into the hands of some Standard Oil official and give him power to act, he will find a way to grease a passage through all the difficulties.—Chicago Tribune.

The Ohio gerrymander has at last gone through in its original character of unlimited iniquity. It gives the republicans 15 congressmen and the democrats 6. Mr. Harrison, Mr. McKinley and the republican press, which have been horrified by the democratic gerrymander in Wisconsin, will now have an excellent opportunity to display their consistency.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

An awful tornado has swept over several western states "sweeping towns from the face of the earth." Many lives were lost and scores of persons buried in the ruins of falling buildings. New England may have its drawbacks, but it seems like a paradise when we read of the terrible afflictions that so frequently visit the states of the west.—Providence Telegram.

Under the democratic gerrymander of Ohio the democrats had 15 members of congress and the republicans 6. Under the republican arrangement, which has just been finally enacted by the legislature, the republicans have 15 districts and the democrats 6. It will thus be seen that each of the two great parties in Ohio can be relied upon to cheat the other as often as it gets a chance.—Boston Herald.

MENTIONED ON THE STREETS.

That the assessor will soon be abroad in the land.

That fishing up the river is becoming very attractive.

That two Toledoans are writing a comic opera, the scene to be laid in Thibet.

That it is getting rather serious when men go out gunning in the middle of the day.

That John Gruekel has some new wattractions to spring on the Ohio Yacht club to-night.

That several fine residences are to be erected on the new Boalt addition on Broadway.

That the councilmen-elect are just beginning to enjoy life, especially those on the majority side.

That the Sultana disaster survivors will talk over their escape in East Toledo at the close of the month.

That the street commissioner's face has not been seen since election day. Funds have gotten low very suddenly.

That there does not appear to be any paucity of gentlemen who are willing to look after the city's affairs in the various offices.

That Toledoans will have an opportunity to hear Bishop Leonard on several occasions between this evening and next Tuesday.

That pipe liners and anti-pipe liners are generally agreed upon the question that Toledo must not engage in the repudiation business.

That the big delegation of citizens who went to Columbus to talk for and against gas bonds are once more at their homes in the Future Great.

That there are yet no tidings of the missing insurance agent, E. A. Pope, and his friends have almost given up hope of ever hearing from him.

That there are several disappointed engineers, only one of the number of candidates being selected to look after the water works pumping station.

That the matter of filling the city offices will be attended to by the democratic councilmen in a manner which will prove satisfactory to the party.

That Police Commissioner Doville is manifesting considerable anxiety to become a cop manager, since he has not even received his commission as yet.

That the Immaculate Conception parish people are making great preparations to entertain the participants in the cornerstone laying exercises on the first of May.

That legislative ripping is not so repugnant as it might be when it is done by republicans. It makes a great difference which party is in the saddle, so to speak.

That Lucas county still looks in vain to the penitentiary managers for fat berths. The law makes it obligatory to appoint one guard from each county, hence Lucas will get a little something.

That Herman Baumbach has his heart "set" on Bill Kirata's place as infirmary superintendent, and is willing to make a fight for it, if he has to remain in Columbus until the legislature adjourns.

IN NEW MEXICO.

Grand Army Men Hold Their Ninth Encampment.

Las Vegas, N. M., April 8.—The ninth annual encampment of the G. A. R., department of New Mexico, is in session here. Nearly every post in the territory is represented and the encampment is the largest one ever held in this territory.

Yesterday a grand parade was made through the principal streets. The business blocks and private residences along the line of march were handsomely decorated with flags and bunting.

After the parade Col. A. J. Fountain, of Las Cruces, department commander, delivered the annual address. Last evening a grand campfire was held at the Tamme opera house, addresses being delivered by Gov. Prince, Chief Justice James O'Brien, ex-Chief Justice E. V. Long and others. Capt. Jack Crawford, the poet scout, read a poem.

GEORGE LETHART WEEPS

He Says That He Has a Hot Temper

And That It Got the Best of Him—He Was Turned Over to the Common Pleas Court and Bail Was Fixed at $2,000.

This morning George Lethart, who shot Samuel Clarke yesterday afternoon, was arraigned in police court on the charge of shooting with intent to kill.

Lethart waived examination, and he was bound over to the court of common pleas. Bail was fixed at $2,000, which the prisoner was unable to furnish.

"Have you anything to say to the public, Mr. Lethart?" questioned a Bee through the bars of the city prison corridor.

"Nothing," replied the prisoner, more than that I have made a mistake. I was never in any trouble before. I am a peaceful and an honest man. I have lived in Toledo a long time, and have many friends who can testify to my previous good character. I am hot-headed, have a quick temper, and this time it got the best of me. I see my mistake now and am sorry that it happened. It was a trouble of long standing. You haven't heard the whole facts or you would not think me so much to blame as you do. I don't care to say any more at present. I suppose I'll have to take the consequences of my hasty action."

"Did you premeditate murder?"

"I did not."

Mr. Lethart's wife went down to the police station this morning with her baby. Lethart took the child in his arms and both he and his wife had a spell of crying.

The detectives say that Lethart purchased the pistol and cartridges yesterday morning for the purpose of murdering Mr. Clarke. The pistol had six charges in it and Lethart had a box of cartridges in his pocket.

Lethart will be taken to the county jail this afternoon.

Mr. Clarke is at St. Vincent's hospital. The doctors do not yet know whether or not his injuries will prove fatal.

THE YARYAN EVAPORATOR

Adopted by the United States Navy,

And It Will Be Used on Uncle Sam's Warships—The Contract Is Worth Half a Million Dollars.

This morning Mr. H. T. Yaryan received the following announcement from his agent in Washington:

"The chief engineer of the U. S. navy has accepted our apparatus."

The "apparatus" means the famous Yaryan Evaporating system for ship's use in the distillation of salt water for boilers and general use.

The system has been adopted in several of the largest English man-of-wars. Mr. Yaryan is in receipt of numerous testimonials—among others this:

S. S. "Orient," Dec. 1, 1891.

Having your most valuable Evaporator on board I am pleased to say it works beautifully, and fully bears out all the advantages you claim for it. I have now had it working since the above steamer came from the builder's hands. We have been under steam 30 days at a stretch steaming out to Rangoon, also to Cape Town, and I can therefore recommend it to all and every owner of compound and triple or high pressure boilers.

H. THOMAS, Chief Engineer.

Mr. Yaryan said this morning the acceptance of the evaporator by the U. S. government would be worth $500,000 to his company.

LARGEST MAJORITY EVER GIVEN

Caldwell, O., April 8.—The returns from Noble county were officially examined yesterday, and it was ascertained that Hon. William Chambers, republican, received a majority in this county of 775 over S. M. Werin, democrat, for common pleas judge of this subdivision. This is the largest majority ever given to any candidate in this county.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

HENRY C. ERNSTHAUSEN

Appointed as Deputy Police Clerk

By George Leiblus—Henry is an Old-Time Bookkeeper, and Will See the Records are in Shape.

Police Clerk Elect George W. Leiblus announces his deputy in the person of H. C. Ernsthausen, a good democrat and an excellent gentleman. Mr. Ernsthausen has been a life-long resident of Toledo, and has always worked hard to further the interests of his party. He is an expert bookkeeper, and in that respect is especially fitted for the office. He was bookkeeper for Street Commissioner James Gribbin and a cleaner set of books would have been hard to find. He is secretary of the First Ward Democratic club, and a democratic caucus in the ward without Henry as secretary would be a curiosity. He will make a good deputy, and Mr. Leiblus is to be congratulated on securing so able an assistant.

WENT AGROUND.

London, April 8.—The Dutch steamer Veendam, Capt. Vandersee, which left New York March 26 for Rotterdam, is aground at Maashuis, a fishing town 10 miles from Rotterdam, on the new Maas. The steamer will have to be lightened in order to float.

F. J. Hoag has taken out a building permit for a $3,000 frame residence on Lawrence avenue.

JOHNNIE'S WISH.

When I'm yanked out of bed at six,
Just when I want to sleep,
An' made to dress myself an' fix
The fires an' tend the sheep,
An' get the wood in from the shed,
An' milk the cows an' clean
Ol' Dexter's stall an' air his bed,
An' fill the old tureen

With scraps an' swill an' tote it down
To them 'ere nasty swine,
An' do a lot o' chores in town,
An' hang the clothes on line—
When such things happen I'll be bound
It makes me yell an' bawl
An' wish Columbus hadn't found
America at all.

The cost of the alloy in the ingot form is stated to be about 25 cents per pound.

One of the most striking pictures of this year's summer exhibition at the British Royal Academy will be a vision of the "Last Judgment," by Sir Frederic Leighton. It is founded on the words of St. John, the divine: "And the sea gave up the dead that were in it." The picture is said to be an original and powerful study, painted in a style differing to a very considerable extent from that which has been associated with President Leighton's name within recent years.

New York has a new society which, so far as its objects are concerned, is certainly very praiseworthy. It is called the Law Enforcement society, and its design is not to secure any new legislation, but to see to the enforcement of that already existing, especially such as pertains to streets, parks and public ways. The members of the society have been divided into two great committees, one to see that the streets are kept clean and well paved, and the other to try to improve the lighting of the streets, to have trees planted, and to establish parks. "Complaint blanks have been distributed among the people, and those having any fault to find are invited to make it known to the society. Such a society could not have selected a field more open to work than the Tammany preserve.

HOW A WATCH WON A BRIDE

Charles Eames stepped into the office of his friend Bowles, editor of the Glenville Courant.

"How are you Eames?" asked the editor.

"I ought to feel happy, I suppose," said the young man, a little spitefully, "for I've just received notice of a legacy."

"Indeed! I congratulate you."

"Wait till you hear what it is. My Aunt Martha has just died, leaving $50,000."

"To you? I congratulate you heartily."

"No, she leaves it to a public institution. She leaves me only her silver watch, which she has carried for 40 years."

"How is that?"

"She didn't approve of my becoming an artist. She wished me to be a merchant. If I had consulted her wishes I should doubtless have been her sole heir. This small legacy is meant more as an aggravation than anything else."

"But you can make your own way."

"I can earn a scanty living at present. I hope to do better by and by. But you know my admiration for Mary Brooks; if I had been Aunt Martha's sole heir I could have gained her father's consent to our marriage. Now it is hopeless."

"I am not sure of that. This legacy may help you."

"An old watch? You're joking."

"Not if you will strictly observe my directions."

"What are they?"

"Simply this: Agree for one calendar month not to mention or convey the least idea of the nature of your aunt's bequests. I will manage the rest."

"Very well."

In the next issue of the Glenville Courant the young artist was surprised to read the following paragraph:

We are gratified to record a piece of good luck which has befallen our esteemed fellow-citizen, the promising young artist, Charles Eames. By the will of an aunt, recently deceased, he has come into a piece of property which has been in the family for many years. Miss Eames is reported to have left $50,000.

"Really," thought the young man, "anybody would naturally suppose from this paragraph that I inherited my aunt's extra property."

He put on his hat and walked down the street. He met Ezekiel Brooks, president of the Glenville National bank.

Mr. Brooks beamed with cordiality.

"My dear sir, permit me to congratulate you," he said. "Can I speak to you on business a moment?"

"Certainly, Mr. Brooks."

"You'll excuse my advice, but I know you are not a business man, while I am. My young man, do you want to make some money?"

"Certainly. I should be glad to do so."

"James Parker has 500 shares of the Wimbledon railway. It stands at 56, a figure much below its real value. But Parker is nervous and wants to sell out. I want you to buy out his entire stock."

"But, Mr. Brooks—"

"I know what you would say. It may go down, but it won't. I have advices that a speedy rise is almost certain. Buy him out and you'll make a handsome thing of it."

"But how shall I find the money?"

"Of course you haven't received your legacy yet. I know there are delays. No trouble about that. Give your note on 90 days, and I'll indorse it. You'll sell out before that time at a handsome advance."

"I will place myself in your hands, Mr. Brooks, but you must manage the business."

"Certainly. By the way, come round and dine with us, or have you another engagement?"

This was the first time he had been invited to the capitalist's table. The fact is, until this morning Mr. Brooks had scarcely vouchsafed him more than a cool nod.

It was a very pleasant dinner. The young artist remained afterwards.

"I have an engagement, Mr. Eames," said Mr. Brooks, "a meeting of the bank directors. But you musn't go away. Mary will entertain you."

The young man did not go away and apparently was satisfied by the entertainment he received.

Every few days he received a similar invitation. He could not fail to see that Ezekiel Brooks looked with evident complacency on the good understanding between his daughter and himself.

"What will he say," thought the young man, "when he finds out what sort of a legacy I have received from my aunt?"

One day Mr. Brooks came up, his face beaming with joy.

"Wish you joy, Eames," he said. "Wimbledon's gone up like a rocket to par. Give me authority and I'll sell out for you."

The artist did so, hardly realizing what it meant till, three days later, he received a little note to this effect:

Dear Eames—Have sold out your 500 shares of Wimbledon at 101. So you bought at 56. This gives you a clear profit of $45 per share, or $22,500. You had better take the ride and reinvest your surplus. Call at my office at once. EZEKIEL BROOKS.

It must be a dream he thought. But when he called at the old gentleman's office he found it was really true.

"Mr. Eames, how about this money? Shall I reinvest it for you?"

"Thank you, sir. I wish you would. I should like a little in hand, however."

"Certainly. Will that answer?" and the old gentleman wrote a check for $500.

The next day he went to the city and ordered a new suit of clothes at a fashionable tailor's. The fact was, his old coat was getting threadbare and his overcoat decidedly seedy.

While he was about it he bought a new overcoat and boots, as well as other needed articles, and still returned with money enough in his pocket to make him feel rich.

When Eames appeared on the street in his new suit it was a confirmation of the news of his inheritance. His removal to a fashionable boarding-house was additional confirmation.

All at once it occurred to him: "Why shouldn't I propose for Mary Brooks? With $20,000 I could certainly support her comfortably." There was a very pretty cottage and very tasteful grounds for sale at $5,000.

One morning, with considerable trepidation, young Eames broached the subject to Mr. Brooks.

"No one I should like better for a son-in-law, if Mary is willing," was the prompt answer.

Mary was willing, and as there seemed no good reason for waiting, the marriage took place within a few weeks.

"Charles," said his father-in-law, after the young people returned from their wedding journey, "I have been lucky in my investments, and I have $31,000 to your credit—or, deducting the amount paid for your house, $26,000. By the way, have you received your aunt's bequest?"

"I received it yesterday," said Charles. "Here it is," and he produced a battered silver watch.

For a moment he regretted his daughter's marriage, but then came the thought that his son-in-law, through a lucky mistake, was really the possessor of quite a considerable property, which under his management might be increased. So he submitted with a good grace, and is on the best terms with his daughter's husband, who treasures carefully the old watch, which he regards as the foundation of his prosperity.—Boston Globe.

The late Catharine Popp was the oldest member of the Belgian press, and the only woman journalist in her country. She had received from the king knighthood in the Order of Leopold.

For nearly 40 years Lord Tennyson has had a pension from the British government of $1,000 a year. The poet has derived no personal advantage from the pension, however, for he has devoted the whole of it to the relief of authors in distress.

A pupil of Joachim's, Betty Schwabe, aged 16, the master's "favorite pupil," has made a brilliant debut in Berlin, playing a concerto of Joachim's, Mendelssohn's concerto, and a Vieuxtemps ballad. The critics predict a brilliant future for her.

Caroline Eschard pays more taxes than any other woman in her county in Ohio, is a director of a bank, and is connected with several other enterprises. It follows quite naturally that she is one of the leaders of the movement for school suffrage in her state.

Mr. N. R. O'Connor, the new British minister to Pekin, was secretary of legation at Washington between the years 1885 and 1887. Since that time he has been consul general in Bulgaria. His promotion means an increase of salary from $10,000 to $27,000.

Mr. Allison, of Iowa, is said to be an ideal senator—studious, polite, stately, popular and immensely useful to the senate as well as to his constituents. As for her personal appearance, he is described as "well fed, well groomed, sleek and smooth."

Prince Hatzfeldt and his American wife are among the prominent visitors at Pau this season. There is plenty of baccarat at the French club there, and the prince is said to be always ready to stake as large a portion of his wife's fortune as the other players care to cover.

The little Lady Alexandra Duff, who, if her mother, the duchess of Fife, were to become queen of England, might herself some day occupy the throne, is pictured as a baby of preternaturally mature expression, with features very much like those of her royal great-grandmother.

HEALTHY. HAPPY. WHY?

Is he a bright child? Does he look healthy and happy? He is bright, and he is both healthy and happy. He is the little son of Mrs. Henry T. Bowers, wife of the well-known contractor and builder, who resides in Dorchester avenue, South Boston. Mrs. Bowers has had quite an experience with her children, which experience we give in her own words, as follows:

"I have a little boy two and one-half years of age, the perfect picture of rugged health, and also a little girl of four. I attribute their good health and good temper to the use of Dr. Hand's Remedies.

I have used, as occasion required, the entire line, and have had very marked results from the Colic Cure, Cough and Croup Medicine, and the Pleasant Physic. I have never had any but good result from the use of any of them."

No mother would make a statement like the above unless she knew wholly whereof she affirmed.

CATARRHAL ASTHMA

Its Evil Consequences to the Lungs.

A Husband's Letter Describing His Wife's Cure.

A Grateful Family.

T. W. Montgomery, of Huntington, Pa., under date of December 22, 1891, gave the following story to a press reporter, which will, doubtless, interest many of our readers. He said: "My wife was severely afflicted with what developed into a severe attack of asthma, and I wrote to The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing company as to the propriety of giving her Pe-ru-na. They answered me, advising me to give it to her, and enclosed special directions, which we followed carefully, and with the best results possible. I have been waiting to see if there would be any symptoms of a return of the trouble, but am happy to say that my wife appears to be fully recovered, and has been ever since and is now enjoying as good health as ever in her life. Pe-ru-na is a great medicine."

Asthma is of three varieties—catarrhal, spasmodic and periodic (hay fever). The above case was one of the catarrhal variety, which is, by far, the most common kind. Catarrh of the head or throat soon begins to extend downwards through the bronchial tubes to the lungs, when it will cause asthma or consumption. In case it produces asthma it causes a loose cough with much expectoration, shortness of breath at the least exertion, with spells of very difficult breathing.

Pe-ru-na is a sure cure for this condition, as well as for all other catarrhal diseases. Catarrh of all stages, wherever located, soon yields to the beneficent action of this remedy. Pe-ru-na is the only medicine that has stood the test of time as a catarrh remedy. It acts agreeably and cures permanently.

A pamphlet on the cause and cure of all catarrhal diseases and consumption sent free to any address by The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Co., Columbus, O.

THE UNION OF UNIONS

Business Done at the April Meeting

Held in the Lagrange Street Congregational Church—The Annual County Convention to be Held at Maumee.

The April meeting of the Union of Unions was held yesterday afternoon in the Lagrange Street Congregational church, with good attendance. Mrs. Louise Eck presided, Mrs. Affie Hitchins kept the minutes, and devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. George Candee.

On invitation of the Good Templars it was decided to hold a joint mass meeting of the temperance unions and Good Templar lodges of the city Wednesday evening, April 27, in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church.

A good deal of time was spent in discussion of the police matron question, it being felt that there was no satisfactory progress yet made toward having proper conditions for women prisoners or proper attendance for them at the police station. The committee on partition and on padded cell was continued, as these changes have not yet been made in the detention room, although an appropriation for the purpose passed the council weeks ago. The committee expect to have to do their work all over again, after the new city officers have been appointed.

A new committee was appointed, and a committee from other women's organizations will be asked to co-operate with it, to take some new steps in regard to securing proper care for female prisoners. The committee is Mesdames Dutton, Bartlett, Heim, Bentley and Clark.

On motion it was decided the Union of Unions would co-operate with the I. O. G. T. in securing a series of free illustrated temperance lectures for the city by Prof. Geo. M. Edmundson, stereoscopist, of the Lakeside association.

President Eck called Mrs. Bartlett to the chair and made a brief but moving address on the duty of the Union of Unions on the question of cigarette smoking. She said that people who lived near the school houses could not help knowing, what she believed parents did not know, how many mere boys were addicted to this deadly habit. Teachers do not look after children after they leave the school house grounds; parents do not look after them until they get home; the police do not arrest boys who are violating the law.

On motion Mesdames Clark, Dutton, Edwards and Bartlett were appointed a committee to prepare a circular setting forth these facts, which should be in the nature of an appeal to parents to look into this evil, and should be presented to them through the press of the city.

A committee consisting of Mesdames Bartlett, Sumner, Eck, Nicholas and Clark was appointed to see about starting a temperance restaurant at Put-in-Bay for the summer.

Mrs. Frances J. Sumner announced that the time had come for setting the date and place for holding the annual convention of the W. C. T. unions of Lucas county. On motion it was decided to hold this convention at Maumee, May 18 and 19.

The May meeting of the Union of Unions will be held with the Lucy Webb Hayes union, in the Baptist church on Heston street, Thursday afternoon, May 5.

INSANE FROM GRIP.

TRANSFER OF ELECTRIC PROPERTY.

Newark, O., April 8.—The transfer of the Blue line electric railroad, owned by Judge Altgeld, of Chicago, was made last night to the Newark & Granville Electric company. The consideration was $100,000. Connections will be made to make it a belt line system. The roads are now owned by Newark citizens.

"Gentle Spring" loses many of its terrors when the system is fortified by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. With multitudes, this wonderful tonic-alterative has long superseded all other spring medicines, being everywhere recommended by physicians.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

Van Wert, O., April 8.—Jacob Miller, of Ohio City, was arrested by Sheriff Shumaker Wednesday evening, charged with forging the names of Clark Sprain and John Butler to a note for $100. Miller is a prominent and highly respected citizen of Ohio City, and his arrest has caused a great sensation. Miller waived examination and was placed under temporary bond.

NO OPIUM IN ANY FORM.

Cough and croup syrups usually rely upon laudanum or paregoric to relieve a patient. This is injurious. Dr. Hoxsie's Croup Cure cures without it. 50 cents.

OUT OF THE TRACES.

Berlin, April 8.—Herr Von Helldorf, who is a member of one of the oldest families in Prussia, and is lord of the fine castle Bedra, near Querfurt, in Prussian Saxony, and is also an influential member of the Prussian upper house, has announced that he will no longer act with the conservatives strictly known as such, but will form a middle party to include what is known as the free conservatives, who do not feel bound to oppose every movement in the line of progress.

FINED FOR ASSAULT.

Duncan B. Harrison Gets Into Trouble in Illinois.

Clinton, Ill., April 8.—Duncan B. Harrison, of the John L. Sullivan company, was arrested at Clinton yesterday and fined $33.85 for assaulting W. H. Kelly, a Clinton man, who had crowded into the train to see Sullivan.

Hot words followed and Kelly struck Harrison, who kicked him out of the car twice.

It was with difficulty that Sullivan and Jack Ashton were prevented from cleaning out the depot crowd.

NOTES FROM FINDLAY.

Interesting Gossip from the Brilliant City.

Findlay, O., April 8.—(Special)—John Jones has been placed in jail charged with stealing a watch.

John Harris has been taken to Wyandot county to answer to the charge of threatening an officer.

A public meeting will be held Monday to see what can be done for suffering Russia.

AT THE TOLEDO THEATERS

Chas. McCarthy Will Come Instead of the Midnight Alarm Next Week—Sol Smith's Sale—Other Attractions.

On account of a mistake made by the manager of the Midnight Alarm company in his bookings, that company will be unable to appear at the People's next week as announced. Manager Brady has been fortunate, however, in securing Chas. McCarthy, in "One of the Bravest," for the week in question. McCarthy is a favorite here, and as his piece is a good one and his company strong he will doubtless do a big business.

Wheeler's Will Be Packed.

Every seat on the first floor is taken for Sol Smith Russell to-morrow night. Only a dozen or so are left in the balcony. Consequently this favorite comedian will not want for an audience. A Poor Relation, a piece in which he appeared here before, will be presented.

Mr. Barnes, of New York.

The attraction at the Wheeler opera house Monday and Tuesday evenings, will be F. W. Sanger's Broadway Theater company, of New York city, in the successful romantic drama, Mr. Barnes, of New York. Mr. Barnes is particularly well known throughout the country through the medium of Mr. Gunter's highly-colored foreign-toned romance. It is a pleasant recollection that the company which Mr. Sanger has collected, and which remains practically the same as last season, contains many actors and actresses who seemed specially qualified for the requirements of the roles assigned them. Mr. Barnes offers excellent opportunities for the scenic in the scenes, the Beach at Ajjacio, the gardens at Monte Carlo and the novel railroad scene.

The Limited Mail

Is playing to packed houses at the People's this week, and people are turned away nightly.

It is one of the best attractions billed at the People's this winter. The scenic effects are superb, and the mechanical applications unusually fine. A passenger train enroute, a saw mill in motion assisting in the realistic production of railroad life. Aside from these points the story is interesting and the cast exceedingly strong.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

On the Question of Steam Boiler Explosions.

To the Editor: I would like to wake people up a little in regard to the prevention of steam boiler explosions.

You are called on almost daily to chronicle the event of some frightful accident of this kind resulting in the destruction of valuable property and the loss of life and finally to close by saying that there is some great mystery connected with the affair.

Then perhaps the next article will be one commending the present advanced state of applied science and representing that there is no mystery too deep for science to fathom and put into practical use. Now every one who has given any attention to the matter of steam boiler explosions knows that there is nothing about a steam boiler that science is not thoroughly familiar with. In our State university the properties of steam in any and all conditions are reduced to mathematical precision. The same may be said of the strength of boiler plate and other materials. An elaborate testing machine is the property of the state of Ohio and is available for service.

After the state has done so much to promote applied science in its university and manual training schools, why should it not introduce a connecting link between science and the practical boiler owners and attendants? Why can not the state of Ohio protect the lives and property of its citizens as most other states are doing by providing for state inspection of steam boilers and proper examination of the engineers in charge?

Uncle Sam looks after life and property on the waters in this way and sees to it that there are no mysteries on vessels to cause trouble. We have a state law providing that cities can take the responsibility of examing its boilers and engineers, but it seems that cities in this state do not care to shoulder such responsibility, and in turn says to boiler owners that they can take the responsibility if they want the benefits of steam power. Most reputable concerns have their steam plants insured and inspected by one of two or three insurance companies that are doing a profitable business in this direction. But a large number of boilers never get a good examination from the time they leave the shop in which they are made until they need repairs, and if during this time the steam pressure from the inside becomes greater than the strength of the shell that confines it at its weakest point the fittest survives and the steam is no longer confined in that place. Then people wonder why one boiler explodes and another, which looks the same to them under brickwork and covered with soot, does not.

Do people wonder that one man gets rich while his brother does not? Surely two boilers need not be more nearly alike than two brothers, especially when they get attention as different as can be.

ROUGH ON CORNS. Liquid, 15c. Salve & Plaster, 10c.

Suicides and Correct Living.

Injudicious habits produce disordered livers, stomachs, and despondent minds. The best remedy is ROUGH ON BILE PILLS, most prompt and ever reliable cathartic, antibilious little liver pill. 25c., Druggists.

Fly, Flies, Ants,

annihilated by mixing a teaspoonful of ROUGH ON RATS with a saucer of sweetened water; place on high shelves or suspend in the room, or dip pieces of paper or muslin in this mixture and hang them up in the room. Or for Ants mix a teaspoonful of ROUGH ON RATS with a quarter pound of brown sugar and sprinkle on high, out of reach shelves, or on rear border of lower shelves. 15 & 25c.

The Bed Bug.

In hot weather he's about. To quickly and permanently rid your beds of bugs, put a small box of ROUGH ON RATS in a pint bottle of benzine, shake well when using. Douche the mixture into the cracks, crevices, holes and openings of the bedstead. It will turn their toes up rapidly. Then mix another small box of ROUGH ON RATS thoroughly with a quarter pound of lard, with this mixture fill all holes, openings, cracks and crevices in the bed. These two methods are warranted to never fail; to be effective and lasting. Cut this out.

ROUGH ON TOOTHACHE. Instant relief, 15c.

IN TRADING CIRCLES.

Both at Our Home and Abroad.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Prices Currents for Produce and Other Articles.

The receipts of wheat to-day at Minneapolis and Duluth are 451,625 bus., and at five other points 89,547 bus. The winter wheat points, Toledo, Detroit and St. Louis, only 28,920 bus.

The export clearances yesterday at four Atlantic ports were wheat 191,852 bus., and flour to an aggregate of 360,000 bus. Exports of corn 107,948 bus., and of oats 16,158 bus.

English markets as reported herein are stronger, and in some deals higher.

The Markets To-day.

The great short wheat plungers are taking lessons in adversity just now. The great army of dealers had no sympathy with the late sharp decline which they were powerless to prevent, and stood still and waited, and wondered where it would stop. Without public notice to the shorts these dealers quite simultaneously commenced buying, and the volume of it has absorbed the offerings. It looks very much as though they were now after scalps, and here's hoping they will get them. Because, they have stamped upon prices, needlessly depressed them, and made great profits at the loss of the friends of wheat. But the market has put on her beautiful garments to-day, but it is a buzz-saw to the shorts, all the same.

"Ah me, what perils do environ
The man that meddles with cold iron."

We have had no such change in markets in a day on this crop, save one, and it is more than all else caused, by demand from shorts.

At last foreign markets are awake, and Liverpool is reported closing 1 1-2 pence higher on wheat. Antwerp, 2 1-2c higher. Paris 1l higher.

American wheat markets closed 3c to 4c higher. Corn for May, 1c higher.

In New York May wheat closed 2 7-8c, and July 3c higher. May corn 1c and July 3-4c higher.

In Chicago May wheat closed 3 1-2c, July 4c higher. May corn 1c, and July 5 8c higher. May oats, 3-4c up.

In Toledo the trading in wheat futures has been active and the market very strong with an advance about corresponding other markets and closing at the highest prices of the day. On the call July wheat sold at 84 1-8 to 84 5-8 and August at 83 3-4. After the call May commenced at 93 and closed at 94 1-4, a gain of 3 1-2; August small dealings, sold at 86 and closed at 86 1-4, a gain of 3 1-4.

Cash wheat was not in active request, and was neglected. Small sales of No. 2 soft at 94, and at close the market was about 94 1-2, a gain of 3 1-2; rejected No. 1 at 84; No. 2 white at 91, L. S.

Corn was more active and dearer. No. 2 at 40 1-2; No. 3 at 39 1-2 to 40; No. 3 yellow at 40 1-2. Oats, No. 2 at 32. Rye, No. 2 at 80.

Clover Seed—An error in our report of yesterday made closing price $8 10; should have been$7 10. To-day the sharp demand continues, as well as the outward movement, and prices are again advanced, closing $7 30 for prime; No. 2 at $6 90 and above.

NO DEALING WITH RUSSIA

Germany Denies a Sensational Story.

Austria Was Becoming Excited and Something Had to be Done to Quiet the People.

Berlin, April 8.—The North German Gazette repeats the denial that Germany is seeking to enter into a commercial agreement with Russia.

This is regarded as official and is looked upon as indicating that the German government does not wish it to be supposed that it is inclined to extend to Russia the commercial privileges enjoyed by Austria.

The report that Germany and Russia were contemplating a commercial agreement originated in St. Petersburg, and caused much comment at Vienna.

It is to allay this feeling in Austria and to convince the Austrian kaiser of the permanence and thoroughness of Germany's friendship that the German government has hastened to disavow any responsibility for the St. Petersburg report.

SHUT OFF THE MOTOR.

Pine Bluff, Ark., April 8.—The city was in utter darkness last night, the Pine Bluff Water and Light company having shut off the city's light and water supply, owing to the failure of the city to pay anything to the company for the last year's services.

The city owes the company about $10,000 and refuses payment, as the services, it is claimed, were insufficient and thus annuls a contract which is extremely advantageous to the company. In case of fire, there is no water supply to check a conflagration.

A Big Strike Probable Among the Longshoremen on Account of a Chicago Contractor.

Chicago, April 8.—The secretary of the Longshoremen's union of Chicago has issued a call for a mass meeting to-night of the members of that organization and members of the maritime council, seamen's union, firemen's union and other naval unions of the American Federation of Labor, for the purpose of debating the question of a general strike to compel Captain Alexander McRea, who has the general contract for loading and unloading vessels at all the principal docks, to pay union wages, 25 cents an hour, instead of 20. If a strike be ordered 40,000 men, it is said, would go out, and tie up all the shipping of the lakes.

Opening Up at Erie.

Erie, Pa., April 8.—The members of the life saving crew are enlisted, ready for muster. There is no ice in sight.

About Freights.

The Cleveland Leader this morning says:

Grain rates have been slightly on the decline this week, but nearly all the tonnage has been taken, and some of it for two or three trips, so that the figure is not likely to go lower until after navigation opens. Ore men are still shy of contracting tonnage, preferring to take chances on wild boats after two or three trips are made with grain, when they are confident the situation will be more favorable to them. Forty cents has been established as the hard coal rate to Chicago. Rates on bituminous coal from Ohio ports are 50c to Duluth and Marquette and 60c to Portage. The Milwaukee rate is 50c, and 40c is all that is offered to Escanaba. The rate to St. Clair river ports is quoted at 35c and to Detroit 25c. The lumber rates from Saginaw bay are $2 to Buffalo and $1.75 to Cleveland, with several charters at those figures.

A large amount of grain is to be carried from Toledo to Erie. The steamers Nyanza, Fedora, Reynolds, Russell Sage, Pridgeon, Blanchard, America and Brazil are in that trade, and the steamer Panther and consort Massasoit, and the schooner Arthur also are under charter. The rate is 1 1-2c on corn or wheat. The steamer W. H. Barnum will go light to Gladstone for wheat at 2 3-4c. On her return she will load soft coal for Port Arthur at 50c, and bring back wheat at 3 1-2c to Buffalo. The steamer S. E. Sheldon and consort, S. P. Ely, will load wheat at Duluth for Kingston at 5 1-2c, and the propeller Superior is placed for wheat, Chicago to Prescott, at 6c. The propeller J. H. Prentice and consorts Cahoon and Middlesex, will go to Duluth light for wheat to Kingston at 6c.

The Douglas Damaged.

The steamer Douglas, owned by D. Y. Howell & Son, was badly damaged by fire at an early hour this morning. Watchman Howe discovered flames issuing from the boiler room. He tried fire extinguishers without success, and then turned in an alarm. The department responded promptly, and 20 minutes later had the fire under control. At one time fears were entertained that the fire might spread to Howell's fish house, in front of which the burning boat lay, but the prompt action of the fire department soon allayed the fear. The Douglas has only been in commission two weeks, and has been operating in the fish trade with Capt. Harry Tyrie in command.

The boat is damaged to the extent of about $2,200, fully covered by insurance. She will be rebuilt but during the present fish season will run after getting her machinery repaired. In the meantime the steamer Edson and tow barge Morning Star will take her place.

The Dredge Buckeye Sold.

The dredge Buckeye State and tug Warswick leave Toledo for Cleveland. L. P. and A. Smith of that city have purchased the dredge and the tug from W. J. St. John. A clearance could not be secured to-day owing to some irregularity in the transfer papers.

New Put-in-Bay Boat.

Arrangements are practically perfected by which an elegant side-wheel steamer of good carrying capacity, swift, safe and perfectly reliable, and which cannot fail of popularity with travelers, will be placed on the route between Toledo and Put-in-Bay and the other islands. This steamer will leave from the Jefferson street docks, and every effort will be made by the management to please and amply accommodate the traveling public. She will commence regular trips on or about June 15, continuing through the entire season.

The Flora Arrives.

The steamer Flora arrived in port today from Detroit and looks immense. She has received a thorough overhauling. She is officered as follows: Captain, K. Finlayson, one of the ablest seamen on the lakes; Steward, William Elliot; Clerk, S. B. Grummond; Chief Engineer, Wm. Campbell. She leaves for Mackinaw in the morning.

THE BROTHER LIVED.

LeGrand Buell Thinks His Sister's Life Might Have Been Saved.

A dispatch from Detroit, yesterday, says: The fifteen hundred inhabitants of Holly, a town a few miles from here, are greatly interested in the wonderful cure of one of its citizens, LeGrand A. Buell.

To satisfy the many inquiries he is having, Mr. Buell comes out with the following letter:

"Last May I lost a sister from general debility and consumption. In July I was taken with the same symptoms and expected to go the same way, as I was coughing badly and wasting away to a skeleton.

"I studied my case deeply, and concluded that it was due to lack of nerve power to superintend the physical processes. Acting upon this theory I procured some Paine's celery compound, and began to improve in a week. In fact, I gained 21 pounds while taking three bottles.

"I was describing my case to Mrs. D. H. Byram of Petoskey, who was visiting here this week, and she said, 'I cannot speak too highly of Paine's celery compound.' She was wasting away physically and had become so nervous that her hands trembled constantly, and two physicians who attended her said they could do nothing for her. On the advice of a third physician, who was called in consultation, she tried this compound, and soon began to recover strength.

"I wish I had known of the virtue of Paine's celery compound a year ago, for it might have saved my sister's life as it did mine."

All the wholesale druggists of this city report phenomenal sales of Paine's celery compound. Mr. A. S. Brooks, of Williams, Davis, Brooks & Co., says:

"Its sale exceeds that of all other similar preparations taken together."

Paine's celery compound is a great discovery. It is the perfect "spring medicine," restoring strength, enriching blood, and vitalizing the nerves.

FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE,

38 & 40 W. Gay St., one block N. of State House, Columbus, O. Incorporated, 1886. Capital, $300,000.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, of New York, the well known and successful Specialists in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of their large practice in Ohio, have established the FRANCE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific principles. They are ably assisted by a full corps of eminent Physicians and Surgeons, each one being a well known specialist in his profession

CANCER positively cured without pain or use of the knife, by a new method.

Female diseases positively cured by the new remedy, OLIVE BLOSSOM. The cure is effected by home treatment. Entirely harmless and easily applied. Consultation Free and Strictly Confidential. Correspondence promptly answered.

YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, after years of experience, have discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose, or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, or. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.

MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.

PRIVATE DISEASES.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.

WONDERFUL CURES No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.

Cases and correspondence confidential. Tre

GLITTERING GENERALITIES

ALWAYS UNSATISFACTORY.

We would not expect to command your attention nor gain your patronage did we use them. People now days prefer facts, plainly stated. The mere statement by a merchant that he has the nicest store in the city and the largest stock of goods counts for nothing. The question from the buyer these lively times comes quick and sharp—"What have you that I want and what's the price?"

To-day we offer 1,000 Dress Patterns beautiful quality double-fold Bedford Cords. Full line, all the new popular colors. Selling elsewhere at 55c a yard.

OUR PRICE ONLY $3.19 FOR A FULL PATTERN.

On the counter they look better.

On the person they drape beautifully and have the look of finest goods.
